CHINA

Project China is excited to be hosting on-the-field internships in the summer of 2017. It is our goal that these trips will challenge your idea of missions in China and open your eyes to the true need there. Serving as an intern with Project China is a six-week or longer commitment that has two main purposes: (1) to have an active, valuable function in disciple-making ministry, and (2) to pursue a greater understanding of church-planting missions.

Activities include: language school, church ministry, hosting Bible studies with English speakers, and building relationships with college students.
