

Dear Faithful Giver,

You are receiving this letter because you are a generous and appreciated donor to the cause of Christ through the ministry of Vision Baptist Missions. We at VBM are very thankful for all you do for world evangelism.

I would like to ask that you prayerfully consider supporting Vision Baptist Missions either with a monthly gift or with a one-time gift. Your gift would help with our day-to-day and month-to-month operations as well as with projects that periodically arise. Vision Baptist Missions does not require missionaries with our board to give money to aid the operation of VBM. While many of our missionaries do give to support the VBM office on a voluntary basis, we desire for as much of your support to our missionaries as possible go to the work on the field. Your giving specifically to support Vision Baptist Missions would alleviate the financial pressure on the home office and allow for future growth.

Again, we are thankful for all you do in the cause of Christ. We pray that the Lord will allow us to partner together through your one-time gift or monthly support. If there is anything we can do for you, or if we can answer any questions, please contact me anytime.

Here to serve,

Jeff Bush

What does Vision Baptist Missions do?

ACCOUNTING—One of our biggest jobs is to take care of our missionaries' accounting and bookkeeping needs. VBM will be required at various times to handle banking, receiving support checks, and preparing various tax filings.

MAIL—Many of our missionaries live in areas of the world that are still unable to receive mail in a timely manner even in the modern age. We receive all mail and process it in a way that will allow each missionary to stay "up-to-date." We here in the states often take these things for granted, but imagine living in Nepal and having to renew your U.S. drivers' license. Sometimes the simplest things take a lot of coordination!

ACCOUNTABILITY—Accountability exists in a couple different ways. Along with each missionary's home church and pastor, we desire that our missionaries always feel connected to godly leadership in their lives. In turn, Vision Baptist Missions is accountable to our missionaries and to the churches and individuals that support them. We seek to do be accountable with integrity and transparency.

SUPPORT OPERATIONS—There are a host of other small miscellaneous tasks that each missionary needs to have done. These tasks include having prayer cards designed and printed, preparing documentation for visas, and helping to promote various projects.

RECRUITING NEW MISSIONARIES—Vision Baptist Missions desires to see more laborers sent into the Lord's work. We all know that the harvest is white, and there are many believers who desire to go. We want to help as many as the Lord will allow to raise up support and get to the field in a timely manner.

GOALS FOR THE FUTURE

IMPLEMENTING NEW TECHNOLOGIES FOR ACCOUNTING AND RECEIVING SUPPORT—There are many tools available, and we would like to put them to work for the cause of Christ.

EXPANDING OUR SUPPORT STAFF—As our mission board grows we will need to have more hands to do the work. A growing staff will allow us to assist our missionaries, their home churches, and their supporters in better ways.
