July 2019

We had the privilege of accepting three new missionaries this month! Our newest missionaries are: Andy and Lily Smith to China, Nate and Emily Wilkerson to West Africa and Josh and Elizabeth Ewing to Indonesia. Each of these missionaries have served and trained with us, have been proven and are ready to get the Gospel to the countries where God has led them. We are blessed that since 2010, the Lord has allowed Vision Baptist Missions to train and send out 59 missionary families.

In past years, we have always held one week of camp with emphasis being on giving your life to Christ and surrendering to be His witness to a lost world. This year, under the leadership of my good friend, Trent Cornwell, we had two awesome weeks of camp. We had a host of teenagers, several professions of salvation and many decisions to serve God. From the two weeks, there were 37 young people that surrendered, if God allows, to be missionaries. Missionaries preached and taught classes, the teenagers engaged in fun activities but most importantly God did a great work in their lives.

We realize that Christ is coming back soon and we need all the laborers possible to get to the mission field before He comes back.!

Here to Serve!
